

VULCAN TO THE SKY

Commercial Partnership Programme 2010

The Vulcan To The Sky Trust is introducing a new sponsorship scheme for 2010. Aimed at small to medium sized businesses, the Commercial Partnership Programme offers the opportunity to support and be involved with the project to maintain the world's only airworthy Avro Vulcan. For a modest outlay sponsors can benefit from association with Vulcan To The Sky, with a choice of three levels of sponsorship.

SILVER

Silver sponsors will receive a framed reception certificate, a desk diary, a free entry into our Flying Fund Draw and a text web site link to your site. You will also receive key news stories and updates on the flying season by e-mail.

Sponsorship Tariff: £500

GOLD

As a Gold sponsor you will receive all the Silver level benefits, plus your website link will also be via your company logo on the VTST site under a specific "Gold" section. You will also receive a Vulcan calendar and reception Vulcan model.

PLATINUM

Platinum sponsors will receive all the Silver and Gold level benefits, but the reception Vulcan will be an executive boardroom model. A VIP Hangar Tour with key project personnel as host.

Sponsorship Tariff: £2,000

All levels:

All levels will have priority booking on hangar tours so you can introduce guests, clients or your own team to our project. (subject to availability), plus further benefits for sponsorship renewal in subsequent years.
